

CALL FOR PAPERS

<http://nilmworkshop.org/2018/>

The 4th International Workshop on Non-Intrusive Load Monitoring (NILM) will be held at the University of Texas, Austin, in Austin, Texas in late February or early March 2018. The exact date is still being confirmed, and will be announced on our website at the end of November 2017. As in 2014, this workshop will be co-located with the Pecan Street Annual Research Conference. Last workshop was held June/2014 at Simon Fraser University in Vancouver, Canada.

WORKSHOP MISSION & OBJECTIVES

The mission of this workshop is to serve as a forum for bringing together all the researchers, practitioners, and students that are working on the topic of NILM and energy disaggregation around the world.

PAPER FORMAT & STYLE

We invite all researchers working on NILM-related topics to submit 4-page papers to the conference for oral presentation or presentation during a poster session. All submissions must use IEEE style files for LaTeX or Word. We encourage authors to submit papers on research that is ongoing or contains recent results: as the workshop will only include online proceedings, submission to the workshop will not prevent any material from being submitted later to a journal or conference.
